PRINCIPAL’S MESSAGE

WORKING TOWARDS READING AND NUMERACY IMPROVEMENT IN 2014

This week has seen an increase in the number of incidents on the school bus. Reports have included students removing seatbelts, moving around the bus while in motion, foul language, teasing and general roughness. I do not condone these behaviours at all and ask you to support Transdev and the school by discussing the expected behaviours when travelling on the bus. I will be speaking to a number of students this week regarding their behaviours and the serious consequences they could have on the bus. Being safe and respectful are two of our school rules and these still apply while on the bus. I would like to thank you in advance for your support with these matters.

MUSIC NEWS
Best Student: Imogen B
Best Class: 6/7
Best Choir Student: Molly N

Congratulations to all of our prize box winners this week. Students can win from the prize box for many reasons. Sometimes it may be for good behaviour, good performance, good listening, good singing, for following instructions or even winning a competition. Lots of lucky kids this week got prizes. This week the seniors were running through their final rehearsals for their ‘Beatbox & Sound’ activity. Every student has to conduct their group of vocal sounds to create a rhythmic, technically correct and interesting composition.
So far the groups have produced some lovely sequences and some really hard work. I am genuinely looking forward to next week to when I get to hear their final compositions. Best of luck to you all if you’re reading this!

Have a melodic week full of harmonious moments :) Ms Mann

Library News

5 cent collection competition

Good day to all from Fundraising! What an amazing day we have had today, depositing OVER $200 into our schools account! This fortnights 5 cent competition was so very close, but congratulations to the 6/7 class! You have each won an ice block from tuckshop this Friday!

Today, we start all over again, so keep collecting those coins, there's still a chance for any class to win the end of term pizza party!

As always any questions or comments please contact Lizzie on: wssfundraising@gmail.com

Thank you!
